

PHENOMENOLOGY AND HISTORY, Workshop Meeting / July 18-19, Rethymno – Crete, Greece

The meeting will be held at the "House of Europe" (str. ad.: N. Plastira 4a & Damvergi 28)

Program

Monday, July 18

Morning session

10:00

Pat Burke (Gonzaga University Florence)

Merleau-Ponty's Reading of Husserl's Turn to History

11:00

Fabrizio Palombi (University of Calabria)

Topology and topophilia: Bachelardian space between philosophy and history

12:00

Marino Centrone (University Aldo Moro, Bari)

Philosophy of Difference

Evening session

18:00

Olga Vishnyakova (North Seattle Community College)

Nikolai Berdyaev on the Meaning of History

19:00

Stefania Centrone (Universität Göttingen)

Husserl and Leibniz. Notes on the mathesis universalis

Tuesday, July 19

Morning session

10:00

Burt Hopkins (Seattle University)

Unity in Ancient and Modern Philosophy and the Hypothesis of Universal History

11:00

George Heffernan (Merrimack College, Massachusetts)

Phenomenology: Through Historicism to Historicity

Evening session

17:00

Marta Ubiali (University of Leuven, Husserl Archives)

Hannah Arendt: Thinking between Past and Future

18:00

Panos Theodorou (University of Crete)

Facticity, Evil, and Meaningfulness. Disenchanting History